

I am a concerned resident of the State of Indiana. It is my understanding the CBA has petitioned the FCC to create an "established business relationship" exemption to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I am imploring you to deny their petition so that the residents of Indiana can continue to enjoy the peace and quiet that our current telephone privacy laws afford us. Sincerely,
Clarissa A. Finnell